

St. Therese Chinese Catholic School
247 West 23rd Street
Chicago, IL 60616
Principal: Phyllis Cavallone-Jurek
www.sttheresechinatown.org

St. Therese Chinese Catholic School is located in the heart of Chinatown serving 280 students of which 98% are Chinese-American. The school offers a quality education with unique curriculum including Cantonese, Mandarin, and Advanced Mathematics.

Patrons: Mr. Robert Gallagher and Mr. Robert Gallagher, Jr.

Number of Years in the Patrons Program: First year at St. Therese

Wish List for Future Patron Projects

Laptops for junior high
Construction of Prekindergarten classroom
Library
Rooftop Greenhouse
Reading materials for school

"This experience has been truly amazing. St. Therese is so blessed to have such faith instilled in our programs and the blessings of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Gallagher Jr. We feel energized and honored with this relationship."

Ms Phyllis Cavallone-Jurek, Principal at St. Therese

"St. Therese is a remarkable school. We are so glad to be part of this school community. In the years ahead, we all know that the links to China are going to be critically important. This school is helping to make those necessary connections."

Mr. Robert Gallagher, Patron at St. Therese